

Advantages

Last Updated Sunday, 04 December 2011

- Access to professional information by means of the intermodal and Shortsea Shipping database;
- High standards in organizing promotion events (seminars, workshops, conferences, round tables, etc);
- Permanent dissemination of information on European and national projects on intermodality and Shortsea Shipping;
- Support in promotion of the auxiliary activities specific for transport industry;
- Representation, support and protection of the members' interest in relation with public authorities, other entities or persons;
- Conducting advertising/communication campaigns for intermodal and maritime transport;
- Dissemination and promotion of the activity of members from the correspondent international networks;
- Identification of intermodal and inland transport difficulties;
- Initiation of dialogue between the Romanian authorities and the community of maritime and intermodal transport industry in view of finding the appropriate solutions so as to ensure the efficiency of the intermodal transport chain;
- Carrying market and research studies, SWOT and benchmarking analyses;
- Elaboration of projects in view of applying for financing from European funds (national and EU);
- Ensuring assistance for the implementation of financing/cofinancing projects from European funds;

.A