

Safety in intermodal transport

Last Updated Sunday, 21 December 2008

Safety in intermodal transport through continuous training

- Duration : 1 year
- Financed by Phare 2005
- Total eligible costs of the project: 85.000 Euro, PHARE contribution - 88,23%
- Location: South-Eastern Region (Brăila, Galați, Tulcea, Constanța)
- Partners:
  - Romanian Maritime Training Center " CERONAV Constanța
  - Romanian Intermodal Association " CNPTI Constanța

OBJECTIVE: Development and delivery of professional programs for personnel working in intermodal activities in order to promote new professional competencies;

ACTIVITIES:

- Define the specific professional competencies and training objectives;
- Elaboration of training packages (including trainer's manual, trainee's manual, additional training materials);
- Evaluation of customers' satisfaction and results (feedback) monitoring;
- Organization of training programs according to the new course syllabi;
- Development and administration of a webpage regarding the life-long learning and training in the field of intermodal transport.

For more detailed information, we invite you to access the following website link:

• <http://phare05.ceronav.ro/engleza/index.htm>

•